Why the Pump House?

"The thoughts of the secrets locked within, the labor it took to build, and the men that worked here day in and day out to make our community a better place. How many storms has this old building weathered, The floods that surrounded its walls and the abuse of human intruders. Yet, 105 years later, it still stands. Several of the building that I have drawn or put on canvas, have since been destroyed. Thus, the thought, why not transform this magnificent structure into something that the community could be proud of...a gallery."

The Pump House Center for the Arts (PHCA) is a non-profit organization which is operated solely on donations, grants, membership, and private rentals. The support of the members of the Pump House Center for the arts is vital to the continuation of the operations and existence of the Pump House Center for the Arts. It is our mission at the Pump House to maintain and preserve our 'Jewel', the historic Pump House, to further serve the community as an art gallery focusing on educating and exposing the community to the Arts. The purpose of the Pump House Center for the Arts is to provide art gallery space for significant visual exhibitions, original art, art education and participation for all ages, activities relating to all arts, special community and private rental events, and to welcome the whole community with free admission supported by memberships and by sponsorships reflecting the generosity of the community.

At this time, we invite you to become a member of the Pump House. Your membership is good for one year from the month in which you join. To thank all our members, we now serve free coffee in our café area to all members!
